

The SANGUINIST

A RELIGIOUS WEEKLY

Glory be to Jesus,
Who in bitter pains
Poured for me the life blood
From His sacred veins.

Published by the
Sanguinist Club for Catholic Action

St. Joseph's College

Collegeville, Indiana

September 22, 1940

Volume IV, No.1

The SANGUINIST is a religious bulletin published weekly for the personal welfare of the students of St. Joseph's College and High School. Carrying timely religious thoughts, it seeks to promote the primary objective of the College and High School: the development and formation of manly, christian character. It is the personal wish of the officials of the college and High School that all students take a definite interest in this weekly bulletin. Relying on God's assistance, and your earnest cooperation, we offer this first number of the SANGUINIST.

WELCOME

To the students of the High School we extend a hearty welcome. Aware of the splendid improvements made for your benefit, we are confident this will be a red-letter year for your department. The High School now occupies a definite place on the campus. With your cooperation it will make rapid strides in every direction. So work, so study, so play -- that all may point to the High School with just pride and praise.

HE - MEN

He Men --- are not "bullies", are not "smart-alecks", but gentlemen with truly manly character. Everyone enjoys being in the company of a gentleman -- neat appearing, polished in speech and manner, he is welcome in every circle. Being a gentleman demands manliness of the iron and steel type -- it requires courage and real back-bone to make daily efforts to keep in line, to lead an honest and clean life. At the close of school we find the so-called "big-shots" behind the eight ball, the real he-man out in front.

OBJECTIVE

To be a success in life, one must have a definite aim or purpose to strive for. Your purpose, your aim -- a successful school year, both scholastically and spiritually. Your aim -- to put your heart and all the enthusiasm of youth behind your work -- be that recreation, study or prayer. Such wholehearted devotion brings satisfaction that will benefit you not only now, but throughout your life. Your aim -- men of principle and character.

THOUGHT FOR SEPTEMBER

HAPPINESS: It is possible to try to be good in a wrong way. Self-esteem may prompt our disquietude at our spiritual state. But we should remember that all our perfections lie in our will -- not in our brain or in any other part of us -- and our sole endeavor should be to keep our wills straight toward God. All sort of influences try to defeat us to one side or another, and our course through life may be zigzag, but what of it? --- so long as our main tendency is toward God. The Kingdom of God is within us, not in our surroundings, and so long as our hearts are irrevocably given to God, even though the oblation must be renewed constantly, then all is well with us. Happiness is finally reached, even here on earth, not by selecting its conditions ourselves, but by accommodating ourselves, no matter what the cost, to God's plans.

---MESSENGER OF THE PRECIOUS BLOOD.

Your prayers are requested: For the mother of Father Fehrenbacher; she is critically ill.

For the success of the Alumni Drive.

CALENDAR FOR THE WEEK

- SUNDAY:                    In the Gospel of today the "hall of the marriage feast is opened to us". Woe to us, if we are not worthy to share in the divine feast of our God. "Bind his hands and feet and cast him into exterior darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth."
- MONDAY:                    St. Linus, Pope, Martyr. The second pope, immediate successor of St. Peter. He it was who decreed that women should come to Church with their heads covered. Reverent posture while kneeling, decent regard for silence in church are parts of Christian courtesy.
- TUESDAY:                    Our Lady of Mercy. "In dangers, in difficulties, in things doubtful, think upon Mary, call upon Mary. And that thou mayest obtain the help of her prayers, do not abandon her conduct".....Saint Bernard.
- WEDNESDAY:                    Mass of the Day. "Putting away lying speak ye the truth every man with his neighbor, for we are members one of another.....Let not the sun go down on your anger. Give not place to the devil".....Epistle of the Day.
- THURSDAY:                    St. Isaac Jogues and Companions. The first American martyrs. Try to make America conscious of these priests and pioneers who left all comforts of home to brave the forests and savages of early America to plant the seed of the Faith in our land.
- FRIDAY:                    Saints Cosmas and Damian, Martyrs. Twin brothers; physicians. Beheaded during the persecution of Diocletian.
- SATURDAY:                    Saint Wencelaus, Duke, Martyr. A kind and fearless ruler of the tenth century. Opposed by wicked nobles and finally suffered martyrdom in 935.